

The Interview Questions

- 1) What is your attitude to SRE being taught in schools today?
- 2) What are the ideas, concepts, morals, ethics from the SRE curriculum that you experienced that have remained with you and been useful to you in life?
- 3) Tell a story or two to illustrate how and why that has been the case.
- 4) Are there any suggestions you have as to material it would be beneficial to include in the SRE curriculum – given your own experience – as likely to be helpful later in life?
- 5) What are your thoughts on the lessons learnt through SRE? Specifically, do you believe they are limited to childhood learning, or form ongoing learning throughout life?
- 6) In what ways do you see community as relevant through your experiences with SRE?
- 7) Was there was a resonance between SRE and your experiences of the human condition?
- 8) What aspect of SRE resonated?
- 9) What moment/s did it resonated with?
- 10) How should Christians live their lives?

Could you provide some information about yourself so that we can put your other replies in greater context?

- 11) Please tell me your Age in years
- 12) Please tell me the highest level of education you have attained.
- 13) Gender.