

Figure 1: Conceptual Framework. Source: Constructed by the researcher (2023)

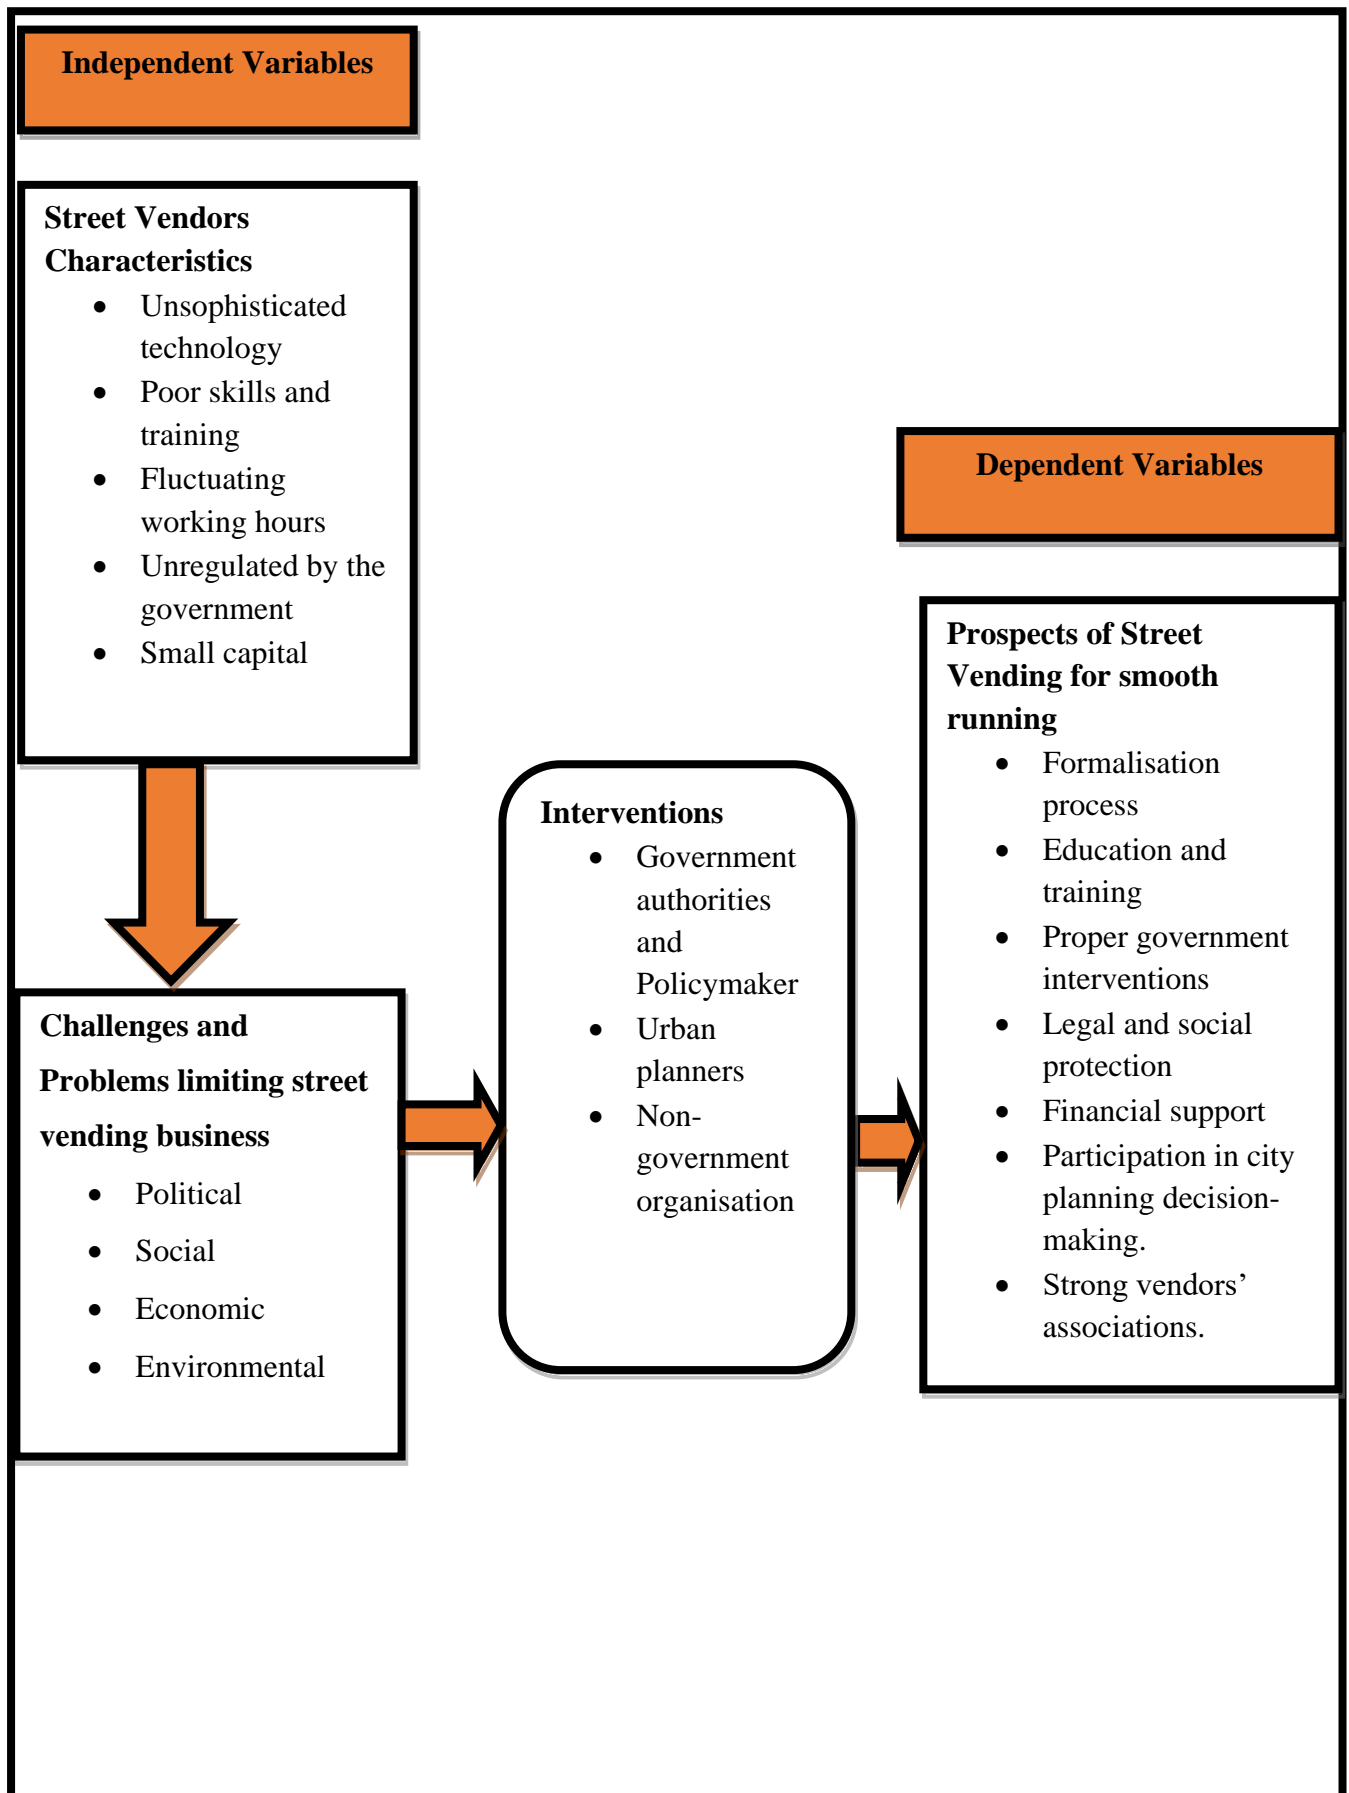

Figure 2: The Mwenge woodcarvers' crafts, paintings (top, left and right), and the primary food market (bottom left). Source: Fieldwork photos (2022).

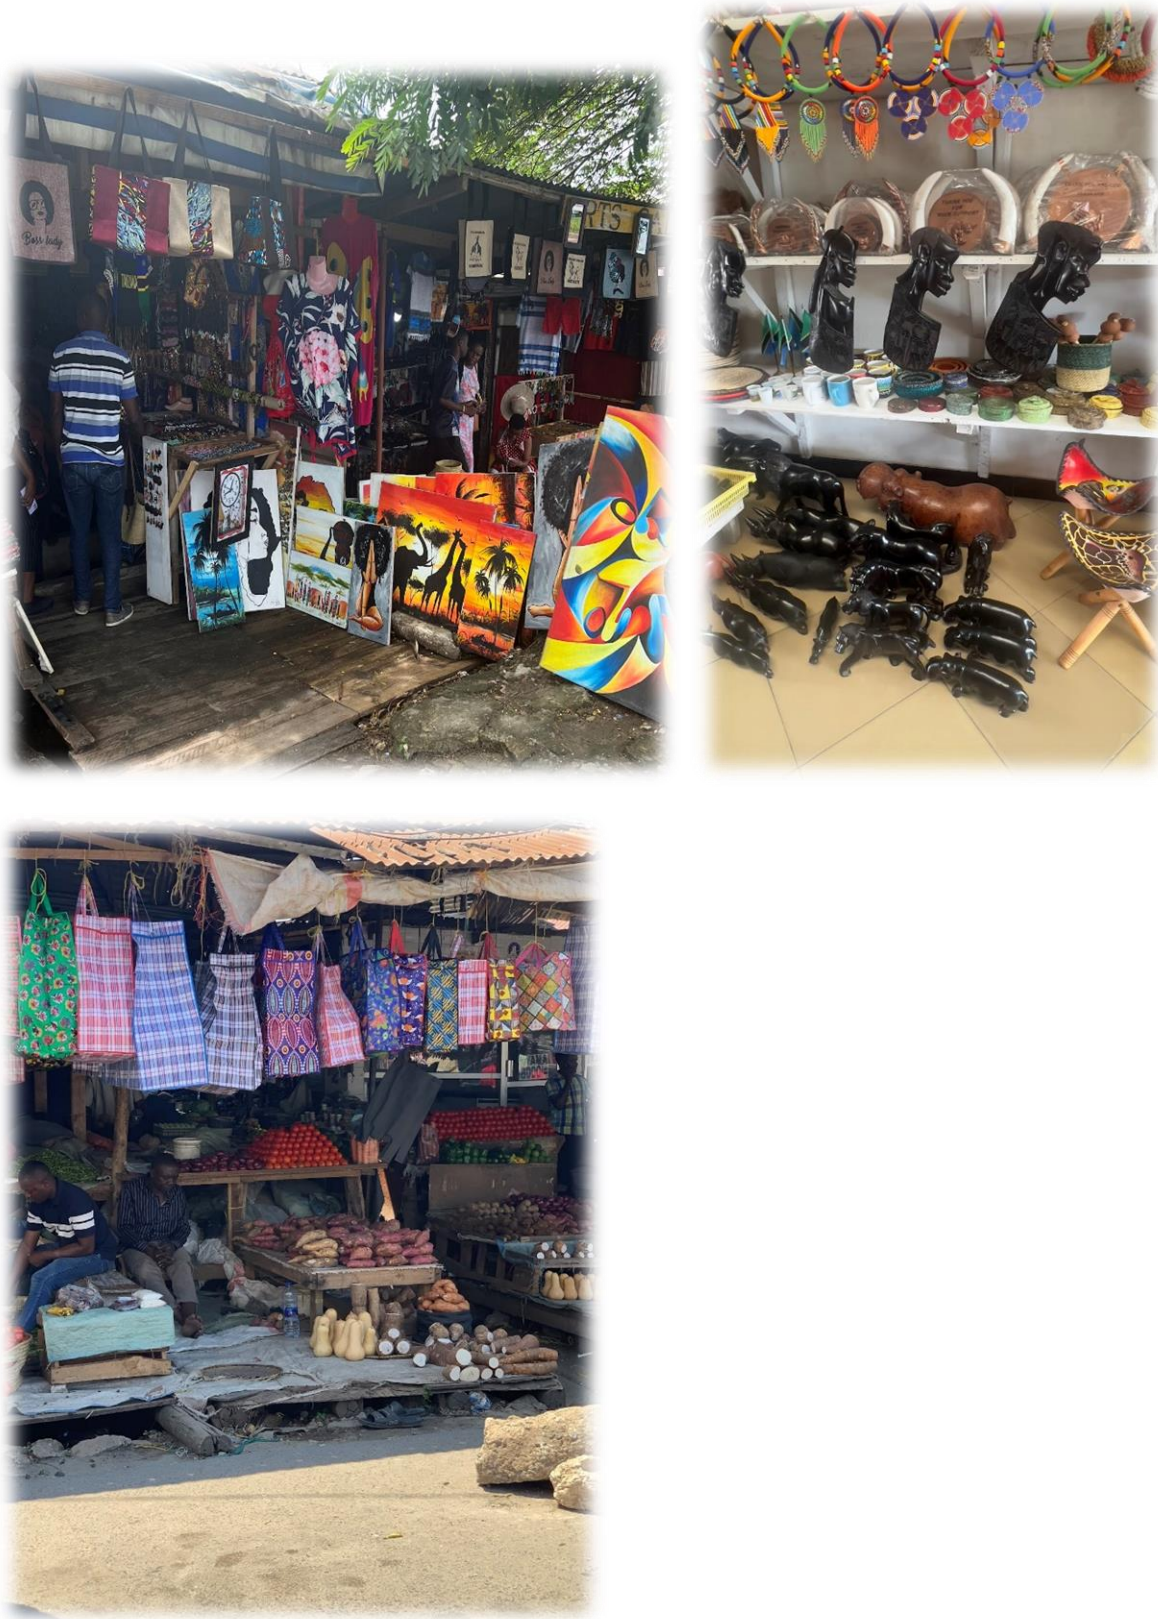

Figure 3: Pictures illustrating the Mwenge Coca-Cola market. Source: Fieldwork photo (2022).

Figure 4: Food vendors selling from the floor due to lack of enough space in the Bunju B market. Source: Fieldwork photo (2022).

Figure 5: An example of a market auction day at Boko Sokoni on Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. Source: Fieldwork photo (2022).

Figure 6: The unclean road at the main Mwenge Market after the street vendors relocated to another area. Source: Fieldwork Photo (2022).

Figure 7: Street vendors selling fresh produce in an unclean area surrounded by litter and an open sewer drain during the market auction day in Boko, California. Source: Fieldwork photo (2022).

Figure 8: A street vendor organising his goods beside the ongoing construction at Bunju B market. Source: Fieldwork photo (2022).

Figure 9: A street vendor selling clothes in a restricted area at Mwenge market. Source: Fieldwork photo (2022).

Figure 10: A public toilet is being constructed (behind the corrugated tin fence) at Bunju B market. Source: Fieldwork photo (2022).

Figure 11: A warning banner located at Bunju ward. Source: Photo taken during Fieldwork photo (2023).

